

Finishing Touch

Lorrie Morgan

I've got one more nail to polish
A little red ribbon to add to my hair
He'll be glad he left work early
When he sees what waitin' at the top of the stairs

Silk and satin in his fav'rite colors
"Come and get me" written on my face
Dancin' around in this pretty French apron
I'm gonna do whatever it takes

I'm puttin' on the finishin' touch
I want him to know that I love him this much
Gettin' ready for him give me such a rush
Oh I'm puttin' on the finishin' touch

Could've stopped off at the local bakery
Instead I stayed home and iced him a cake
Might even tease him a little
With the tip of my finger, I'll give him a taste

Got a little bottle of perfume
The one he bought me
I know that he likes
It'll leave no doubt when I blow out the candles
That I'm all his for the rest of the night

I'm puttin' on the finishin' touch
I want him to know that I love him this much
Gettin' ready for him give me such a rush
Oh I'm puttin' on the finishin' touch

I'm puttin' on the finishin' touch
I want him to know that I love him this much
Gettin' ready for him give me such a rush

The finishin' touch
