

Don't Ask Why

Los Lobos

Tell me where
Where is the place I once knew
Gone away
Disappeared into the blue

I asked the old grey dog
Put out in the cold
Asked the man next door
Left behind just cause he's old
They don't seem to know
Or just don't care to say
They just laughed out loud
And went along their way

Don't go ask why
You give no lie

Gone away
Disappeared into the blue

They just turned away
Wouldn't look me in the eye

Then I asked again
And I swear to God
somebody cried

Don't go ask why
You give no lie

Gone away
Disappeared into the blue
