My crew
My crew
My crew
My crew
Yo, yo, now now, now now

When I wake up before I gather up my pens
I shine up my fronts, I give a Dutch for all my mens
Throw on some Marvin Gaye
I smoke my weed and clean my kitchen dishes
Tec to the sky see how mom's is always bitchin'

I'm done buffin', got my cheese my pen and paper
It's time for me here to prepare my caper
I written it down the line and now a ring is on my phone
It's my nigga Spigg Nice, he tellin' me he in the zone

Yo, I got the liquor the grain fool let's make a tape
I'm caught up in my own zone can't really escape
I ran it down the line as Easy Mo, he played the song
He checked my five, he said to me "Yo later on"

About an hour passes
About my loosey deuce deuce and my tinted glasses
I got the bike that I copped from my younger cousin
'Cause that cat is up in class like a nickel and he wasn't

I'm concentratin' on these moves that I'ma soon be makin'
And once I break then I'ma show my peeps that I'm not fakin'
See my man Pop or Die from the block
Niggas wearin' [Incomprehensible] reverse
As we handle barred it to the block

See certain situations happen
When you caught up in the 'hood in the game of rappin'
You see scrappin' now leads to cappin'
We used to have each other's back
What the fuck happened? Stupid
Yo fuck it

Anyway Mary Easter record store
Walked to the back now let me get a four
Exit from the spot everybody know what's hot
You get yours on and soon as you see 'em
The thieves turn the block

Jump on them right now when niggas chillin'
If you ever sported it you know how I'm feelin'
Cracked open my St. Ides took a squig
As Mama Blackwell whispered

You got it this time
He represents my Crew
You represent my Crew
We represent my Crew
Represent your Crew

He represents my Crew
You represent my Crew
We represent my Crew

Twin Glocks goin' bananas
Buckin' innocent bystanders son
The total sum is a mathematical function
I used to get suspended for keepin' the class jumpin'

Had the blackboard with the chalk in my hand
Mr. Cheeks snatched the thieves off the Canibus plan
Watched the crowd get amped while they scream and chant
It's ill hot, they can't keep still like a fire drill

I be the last one to set it
You could find my name
