Godstate

I'm falling down climbing up Trancemission undivine Rotten smell, deadbeat sound And rustle of dry blood

Here and now Dignity is nothing but grey dust Worthless prayers of the sheep This is the blasphemy!

Inhale, exhale, inside out Time shrinks, time distends Diluted consciousness selects with care The vilest verses which praise thy name

Throbbing Chaosphere Unholyunion of Mind and Will I'm still yearning, I'm waiting still Soul hot varices lead me to bliss
