

Welcome to my hell
Where I'm the universe
Living in the midst of a simulated nonsense
I distort your human image into likeness of me
At the edge of madness
Helming the ship to no one knows where

Devouring the minds of the haunted
I seal light from my soul
With animal fury
I fight in the name of the equilibrium
Diving into chaos
I choke of smell of earthly air

Meditating in torment
I can feel your cold
The scent of nothingness
...can you hear me?!

The burning heavens
Bleed with your existence
Lions deprived your kingdom

Life is river
A drop of water
Fallen at the feet of waterfall

I set sails
Infused by the wind
Like a woman's breast
They drive my ship
The souls shattered by the ship's side
Glitter in sunshine
Washed away by the wave
Wander if infinite oceans

The stars show me the way
I orbit on the ocean's sheet
I use salt water to wash my wounds
The soul mixed with blood
Roar in my chest
My thunder eyes
Burn the mast and sail
To see yours blazing face

Because I ' am the universe here
Living in the midst of simulated nonsense
I'
