

Ramblin' Bones

Lost Years

I spend most of my nights drinkin' all my problems away
Only to find out they get worse with every drink that I take
But you tell me not to worry say everything will be alright
But these old bones and this heart of stone can't find sleep at night
And you said

Oh, sweet thing
You know that I could never leave
You don't know what you mean to me
And she said oh, baby
You know that I could never leave
You don't know what you mean to me
Well I got you babe

And God damn these ramblin' bones, you know I am a rollin' stone
Got my feet on the ground, you got your head in the clouds
But you tell me not to worry say everything will be alright
But these old bones and this heart of stone can't find a piece of mind
And you said

Oh, sweet thing
You know that I could never leave
You don't know what you mean to me
And she said oh, baby
You know that I could never leave
You don't know what you mean to me
Well I got you babe
