

Ethereal

LostAlone

I know when you go home
you sit beside the fire
I know you pace your room hide your face and feel tired Console yourself with artefacts spark old desire And close the chapter of your life choked on the fire
I thought of you today you got to feel love to feel real pain Why wont you give a little love to me visit me in my dreams and haunt me
Give a little nudge to me
You stalk the shadows of my heart so we shall never be apart Alone you wake it dawns feels like your dreams a liar I know you stop yourself returning leave behind now
Won't keep me at bay it seems that we just find love to throw away
