

The Star Chorus

LostAlone

The game is over for me I'm leaving at great speed
I'm floating through space surrounded infinite and safe
The star chorus sang
With silence I am allied on a peaceful and tranquil tide
Future empty lives fall downward to begin their time
The star chorus sang take me away
Been and gone victim scintillating on the intake
This is my way save time losing my shape
Feels like I'm falling away
Born again rapture echoing the cosmic debate
This is my way of escaping my place
Feels like I'm falling away
Born again victim echoing the cosmic debate
This is my way of escaping my fate
Feels like I'm falling away
