

Can't Get Enough

Lostprophets

So many mistakes here,
so nobody listens,
The pact that I make now,
Still something is missing,
I've got nobody here but me...

I won't let you brake,
and I will not let you answer,
The path that I take,
and everyone is dismissive,
Cause this is something they cannot be...

And through all those times I never walked away,
Yeh through all this hurt I still am yet to repay,
I will carry it safe with me!

Cause I still need it,
Can't get enough,
Can't get enough.
I live and I'm breathing,
Can't get enough,
I just can't get enough.
I bruise and I bleed,
I take all that I need,
This is something you cannot break,
And I still believe it,
Can't get enough,
Can't get enough.

I stand my ground again,
I hear that sound again,
Lie after lie,
All those promises die with you...

So I won't back down again,
Won't be unwound again,
When everyone stops,
I'll keep pushing this hate right through...

And through all those times I never walked away,
Yeh through all this hurt I still am yet to repay,
I will carry it safe with me!

Cause I still need it,
Can't get enough,
Can't get enough.
I live and I'm breathing,
Can't get enough,
I just can't get enough.
I bruise and I bleed,
I take all that I need,
This is something you cannot break,
And I still believe it,
Can't get enough,
Can't get enough.

(woah... woah... woah... woah...)

I stand my ground again,
I hear that sound again,
Lie after lie,
Every promise has died with you...

And through all those times I never walked away,
Yeh through all this hurt I still am yet to repay,
And through all those times I never walked away,
I will carry it safe with me!

Cause I still need it,
Can't get enough,
Can't get enough.
I live and I'm breathing,
Can't get enough,
I just can't get enough.
I bruise and I bleed,
I take all that I need,
This is something you cannot break,
And I still believe it,
Can't get enough,
Can't get enough.
I just can't get enough,
Can't get enough...
