

Darkest Blue

Lostprophets

I can see into this abyss,
There is no stopping myself from feeling this.

And I think it's coming through the air,
It torments me,
I try to move the dial and change this frequency.

Everywhere that I go,
Misery will follow,
And it won't let me go,
And it won't let go.

I keep fading into you,
Drowning in your darkest blue,
A sorrow pulls me down,
I'm weightless without sound,
I still hear them calling.

There's no hope,
There's no hope for me,
Cause I can't silence the sound,
They keep calling me. (They keep calling me)

Everywhere that I go,
Misery will follow,
And it won't let me go,
And it won't let go.

I keep fading into you,
Drowning in your darkest blue,
A sorrow pulls me down,
I'm weightless without sound,
I still hear them calling.

I still hear them calling.

Everywhere that I go,
Misery will follow,
And it won't let me go,
It won't let go,
It won't let go.

I keep fading into you,
Drowning in your darkest blue,
A sorrow pulls me down,
I'm weightless without sound,
I still hear them calling,
I still hear them calling,
I still hear them calling,
I still hear them calling
