Hey darling
There is someone we should talkin' about
Something you should know

I let you smile at the way you talk
I love your style at the way you walk
I like your hair and your lips
Your underwear and your himps

I love the cheeck in your sexy lip
Did you feel that you don't have to pay
I love your tongue and your bam bam

I love everything about you girl
Don't you understand
And I know you from head to toe girl
But I hate your boyfriend
