

People Lovin' Me

Lou Bega

This here is a love song
I mean you can dance to it if you want
But it's a love song
You know what love is?

I'll tell you looking to my left, looking to my right
All I'm gonna see is people lovin' me

Have you ever been driving on my highway?
Blinking right but switching onto my way
Everybody wants to know how I do do
Can I hit another lick now to do

Some people tryin' to put me down down payback at my next shutdown
Wait a minute, get into my groove now
And I show you how

Looking to my left, looking to my right
All I'm gonna see is people lovin' me

Looking to my left, looking to my right
All I'm gonna see is people lovin' me

Have you ever had two girls crying same time?
Oh Lord, gimme some sunshine
Have you ever been to church on a monday?
Have you ever been drunk on a Sunday?

A little love is all that I am demanding
A little love is all that I am sending Girlfriend, you know that I am standing
Right in the middle and I am
