

When The Night Comes

Lou Rawls

I know Kyoto well as a foreigner can No gaijin really knows japan
We can walk the streets take in the view
The Kamogawa flows true
I'd love to show it to you

When the night comes I'm going to stand there
in the moonlight with you We're going to sleep
under the dark sky too
Stars a rising
When the night comes

The streets of Paris they've got something I love the atmosphere in spring Soul kissing by the stony banks of the Seine Left Bank and perfect rain

I want to go there again

When the night comes
I'm going to stand there
in the moonlight with you
We're going to sleep
under the dark sky too
Stars a rising
When the night comes

Everybody knows it's better in the midnight hour Wilson Pickett says it's better in the midnight hour

When the night comes
I'm going to stand there
We're going to sleep
under the dark sky too
Stars a rising
When the night comes
