Lou Reed

Miss Riley had a dog
she used to keep it in her backyard
And when the dog began to bark all the neighbors began to shout Then came a stormy night
Miss Riley let her dog out And when the neighbors found him 'round they put a gun down his mouth and shot him down and he went

Ooohhh-wow, bow-wow
Ooohhh-wow, bow-wow

Miss Murphy had a cat on her lap it sat
And once in a great big while it looked like that Cheshire cat did smile But often it used to chase anything that crossed its face But one day it got so hot that Cheshire cat had a blood clot and she said

Ooohhh-meow, me-meow
Ooohhh-meow, me-meow

Meow

And then the dog met the cat the dog was hot and the cat was wet Then came some sweaty dude he put a board between the two Then they couldn't get at it got frustrated all about it So they did the only thing you could do they took the dude's sweat and shot it up between the two and they said

Ooohhh-wow, bow-wow
Ooohhh-wow, bow, me, wow
