

Fly Into the Sun

Lou Reed

I would not run from the holocaust
I would not run from the bomb I'd welcome the chance to meet my maker
and fly into the sun

Fly into the sun
fly into the sun
I'd break up into million pieces
and fly into the sun

I would not run from the blazing light
I would not run from its rain I'd see it as an end to misery as an end to worldly pain

An end to worldly pain
an end to worldly pain
I'd shine by the light of the unknown moment to end this worldly pain

fly into the sun
I'd shine by the light of the unknown moment

The earth is weeping, the sky is shaking the stars split to their core And every proton and unnamed neutron is fusing in my bones

And an unnamed mammal is darkly rising as man burns from his tomb And I look at this as a blissful moment to fly into the sun

fly into the sun
I'd burn up into a million pieces
and fly into the sun

To end this mystery
answer my mystery
I'd look at this as a wondrous moment
to end this mystery

fly into the sun
I'd break up into a million pieces
and fly into the sun
