Good Evening Mr. Waldheim

Lou Reed

Good evening Mr.Waldheim And Pontiff how are you? You have so much in common In the things you do

And here comes Jesse Jackson He talks of Common Ground Does that Common Ground include me Or is it just a sound?

A sound that shakes Oh Jesse, you must watch the sounds you make A sound that quakes There are fears that still reverberate

Jesse you say Common Ground Does that include the PLO? What about people right here right now Who fought for you not so long ago?

The words that flow so freely falling dancing from your lips I hope that you don't cheapen them with a racist slip

Oh Common Ground
Is Common Ground a word or just a sound?
Common Ground
Remember those civil rights workers buried in the ground

If I ran for President
And once was a member of the Klan
Wouldn't you call me on it
The way I call you on Farrakhan

And Pontiff, pretty Pontiff Can anyone shake your hand? Or is it just that you like uniforms And someone kissing your hand

Or is it true
The Common Ground for me includes you too?
Oh, oh, is it true
The Common Ground for me includes you too?

Good evening Mr.Waldheim
Pontiff how are you?
As you both stroll through the woods at night
I'm thinking thoughts of you

And Jesse you're inside my thoughts As the rhythmic words subside My Common Ground invites you in Or do you prefer to wait outside

Or is it true
The Common Ground for me is without you

Or is it true
The Common Ground for me is without you
Oh is it true
There's no Ground Common enough for me and you
