

Legendary Hearts

Lou Reed

Legendary hearts
tearing up apart
with stories of their love their great transcendent loves While we stand here and fight and lose another night of legendary love

Legendary loves
haunt me in my sleep promises to keep
I never should have made I can't live up to this I'm good for just a kiss not legendary love

Romeo, oh, Romeo, wherefore art thou Romeo he's in a car or at a bar or churning his blood with an impure drug He's in the past and seemingly lost forever

He worked hard at being good but his basic soul was stained not pure and when he took his bow no audience was clapping

Legendary hearts
tear us all apart
make our emotions bleed crying out in need
No legendary love
is coming from above
it's in this room right now

And you've got to fight to make what's right
you've got to fight
to make what's right
You've got to fight
to make what's right
you've got to fight to keep your legendary love
