

With You

Lou Reed

With you, life moves so fast with you, everything's a mess
Slow down

Don't you think you could be less capricious I'm not you, I don't have no death wish Slow down
slow down

With you, there is no denying it's you, not my lack of trying With you, everybody's lying it's you, it's not me who's crying Crying, crying
crying, crying

With you, stay and hold tightly from the streets with you, every friend's a possible beat Slow down
slow down

With you, it's a foregone conclusion with you, envy, it's all a delusion With you, I can have no illusions it's you, who has the contusions
Crying, crying
crying, crying

With you, everyone's a sucker with you, it's fuckee or fucker Slow down
slow down

With you, life is just a scramble with you, every day is a gamble With you, I can't forget life barely with you, playing the Virgin Mary And your crying, crying
crying, crying
Crying, crying
