

Eyes of a Child

Loudness

A mother without her son
Stares out silently
Into the emptiness
And weeps into the dawn

Flesh of flesh
Blood of blood
Will never die

A father without his son
Rests his heavy heart
And all the emptiness
Fills his soul with sadness

Flesh of flesh
Blood of blood
A mother's wings for giving shelter
Gone with her dreams forever skelter

Through the eyes of a child
See the light of the world
Through the eyes of a child

Two lovers without their love
Hand in anguished hand
Welcome the emptiness
And leap into the night

Flesh of flesh
Blood of blood
A mother's wings for giving shelter
Gone with her dreams forever skelter

Through the eyes of a child
Watch the rainbow unfold
Through the eyes of a child
See the light of the world

Come on

No more blindness
Innocence surrounds
A mother's wings for giving shelter
Gone with her dreams forever skelter

Through the eyes of a child
Watch the rainbow unfold
Through the eyes of a child
Through the eyes of a child

Through the eyes of a child
Through the eyes of a child
See the light of the world
Through the eyes of a child
See the light of the world
