

Freedom

Loudness

I am the voice of rebellion
From a city black with hate
Imprisoned by the much rules you make
I never will be free

Even Strangers cry
When they see this life

In these days of suffering
Black odyssey
Lost in the crumbling streets of a concrete land

When the moonlights hides
I prowl the night alone

Wake up! Time for freedom
Open up your eye and came with you
Wake up! Time fro freedom
Open up your eye and you'll be free

Look around can't you see
Listen hard try to hear
Shuttered screams crack the sky
Useless promises

Wake up! Time for freedom
Open up your eye and came with you
Wake up! Time fro freedom
Open up your eye and you'll be free

Look around can't you see
Listen hard try to hear
Shuttered screams crack the sky
Useless promises

Take away all our hopes
Bullshit walks, no one talks
Fuck the man who takes a stand
Beat him down, burn this land

Fight the fight, wipe your tears
Shattered screams crack the sky
Break away from your tears

Hey come on!

Wake up! Time for freedom
Open up your eye and came with you
Wake up! Time fro freedom
Open up your eye and you'll be free

Time for freedom
Crying for freedom
Dying for freedom
Time for freedom
Crying for freedom
