

Lost Without Your Love

Loudness

Run from the night, blind love's burnin'
Through your eyes, my empty world is turning
Without you now, tell me how to just let you go
I'm a victim of your touch, your fire
You burn me deep inside

Wild wind carries you away
Out on my own, cryin' in the rain

Gave me no warning, cold winds are blowing
I'm so lost without your love
Gave me no warning, cool fire, lost emotion
I'm so lost without your love

Lost in a dream, the wild wind calling
I can't get free, my soul forever falling
Alone in your love, wounded dove, crying in the rain
Now I'm dancing in the shadow of love, oh yea

Voices screaming in the dark
I'm all alone, stranger on the run
