Lost Without Your Love

Loudness

Run from the night, blind love's burnin' Through your eyes, my empty world is turning Without you now, tell me how to just let you go I'm a victim of your touch, your fire You burn me deep inside

Wild wind carries you away Out on my own, cryin' in the rain

Gave me no warning, cold winds are blowing I'm so lost without your love Gave me no warning, cool fire, lost emotion I'm so lost without your love

Lost in a dream, the wild wind calling I can't get free, my soul forever falling Alone in your love, wounded dove, crying in the rain Now I'm dancing in the shadow of love, oh yea

Voices screaming in the dark I'm all alone, stranger on the run
