

Unhappy Anniversary

Loudon Wainwright III

Unhappy anniversary
it's one year since we split
I walk and talk and get around lie down, stand up and sit I even drink and smoke and sleep and live a little bit
Unhappy anniversary
it's one year since we split

Unhappy anniversary
it's ten years since we met there is no need to remind me no way I could forget we fell in love and we fell out both times there was no net
Unhappy anniversary
it's ten years since we met

Unhappy anniversary
I cannot count the days and nights that I have thought of you since we went separate ways I tell my mind to forget you but my heart disobeys
Unhappy anniversary
I cannot count the days

Un-happy anniversary
it's one year since we split
I even drink and smoke and sleep and
live a little bit
Unhappy anniversary
it's one year since we split
