

Fearless

Louis Tomlinson

Cash in your weekend treasures
For a suit and tie
A second wife
Now, I'm not saying that you could have done better
Just remember that I, I've seen that fire alight

Tell me, do you
Tell me do you still remember feeling young?

Tell me the truth
Tell me do you still remember feeling young
Strong enough to get it wrong
In front of all these people?
Just for tonight, look inside
And spark that memory of you
Strong enough to get it wrong
In front of all these people

Fearless, fearless
Fearless, fearless

Now, if happiness is always measured
By the life you design
That car in the drive
Then you should feel better than ever
But you know as well as I
It's all lies

Tell me, do you
Tell me do you still remember feeling young?

Tell me the truth
Tell me do you still remember feeling young
Strong enough to get it wrong
In front of all these people?
Just for tonight, look inside
And spark that memory of you
Strong enough to get it wrong
In front of all these people

Fearless, fearless
Fearless, fearless
Fearless, fearless
Fearless, fearless

Tell me, do you
Tell me do you still remember feeling young?