Louise Hoffsten

Just like the bubbles in champagne I got you running through my veins Intoxicated by a strange kond of drug Got a sting from a rare little bug I've never seen before You a the sugar in my bowl My candyman and tootsieroll Buzz around like a honeybee Kisses filled with calories Darling I am stuck on you I got a sweet tooth I really tried to extract Something good from the bitter past But in my cup, I don't want sweet'n low No one can substitute tin for gold I want the real thing You a the sugar in my bowl My candyman and tootsieroll Buzz around like a honeybee Kisses filled with calories Darling I am stuck on you I got a sweet tooth