

The Everlasting Dream

Love Like Blood

When the daylight is dimmed
And the darkness deepens
A solitary eagle flies through the heavens
Remaining angels crying and so I thought
This dream, this dream was true

The everlasting dream
Everlasting dream
Everlasting dream
Everlasting dream

I saw a woman with the moon between her feet
A woman who walked wrapped with the sun
A vision seems to fill the darkening sky
Portraying things, things to come

The everlasting dream
Everlasting dream
Everlasting dream
Everlasting dream

A dream forever

Protect me, with the scorching noontime heat!
Protect me, I had a vision, I had a vision!

The everlasting dream
Everlasting dream
Everlasting dream
Everlasting dream
