

Please

Love Spit Love

Please don't move
Don't speak please
Don't go, don't leave

Please her, please him
Slow down sweet thing
Please don't move
Don't speak

There must be something I forget
There must be something I forget to say

Please, please
Lies don't mean things
Please, I'm gone she sings

It's too late to turn back
Keep what I have
Please don't move
Don't speak

There must be something I forget
There must be something I forget to say
Please

There must be something I forget
There must be something I forget to say

Please, please
Words get broken
Please
Hushed and spoken

Please her, please him
Slow down sweet thing
Please don't move
Don't speak

There must be something I forget
There must be something I forget to say
There must be something I forget
There must be something I forget to say
Please
