

Willow Willow

Love

Oh no, oh no, you don't have to explain it any more
You told me once all I did was complain
But that was long, long before, now I'm assured
I go all alone in my lonely world
Go and I know, look and I see only one girl
Willow, willow, why do you bend so slowly but positively?
I saw you grow up from the ground
Came the top half of irresistible you
You know it too
You grow all alone in your only world
Grow and you know
Look and you see it's a shining world
Oh no, oh no, you don't have to explain it any more
You told me twice all I've did was complain
But that was long before, now I'm assured
I go all alone in my only world
Go and I know, look and I see it's a shining world
