

My Loon

Lovebugs

Somehow we are lovers
And somehow we are friends
Somehow we are strangers too
But we don't ever mind
It will never feel the same
For you and me

Somehow we are beggars
And somehow we are thieves
Somehow we are angels too
But we don't ever mind
It will never feel the same
For you and me

It's alright, 'cause I hate you no more
It's alright, 'cause it hurts me no longer and
It's alright, 'cause I can work it out
And don't feel lonely anymore
With you my loon
My only loon

Somehow we are gamblers
But never take a chance
Somehow we are stumbling too
Affraid to let it end
It will never feel the same
For you and me
