

She's A Butterfly

Lovebugs

When I close my eyes I see
Her sitting on the sofas edge
Spoonin' sugar in her tea
And everything makes sense
She hasn't anything to prove
And so little to explain
Only one who get's my jokes
And all the points in between
She's a butterfly she said
Paperthin and she don't care
Disapears without a word
Hope it doesn't take to long
And I hope it doesn't take to long
