

The Highest Heights

Lovebugs

I climb a tree, so mighty high
I see the world from just beneath the sky
The dreams I dream, they take me high oh

The air is thin, my thoughts are clear
I can feel something is in the atmosphere
The dreams I dream, they take me here
Oh, beyond the last frontier

The time is now, there's no excuse
Everyone I know, I hope you like the news
The time has come, the curtains call

Will you catch me when I fall? (Oh yeah)
From the highest heights of all? (Oh yeah)

I climb this tree, the highest heights
From beneath the stars, I see little lights
The dreams I dream, demand their rights
Oh, I've got no head for heights

The time is now, so stop the tease
And may I have your attention please
The time has come, the curtains call

Will you catch me when I fall? (Oh yeah)
From the highest heights of all? (Oh yeah)
How will I ever know?
I've always gotta know,
Will you catch me?

(Ohh-oh-ohoh)
I've always gotta know,
(Ohh-oh-ohoh)
Will you catch me?
