Waiting For A Miracle

Won't take no for an answer Every girl a table dancer Every boy a rented hole A sad infected junkie soul Dangerous and open minded Games he plays always one sided Your downfall is calculated Glory days have faded

Tomorrow will be sanctuary Young boys, young girls Waiting for a miracle

Needle dreaming powder joy I'm anybodies, I'm your toy Build yourself up with a pill It takes guts to kill

Tomorrow will be sanctuary Young boys, young girls Waiting for miracles Just to get by need to get high Young boys, young girls Waiting for a miracle

Chasing after mother's love Hide from dragons high above Come to mummy, I'm sure he said Drugged me, fucked me, left for dead I guess I was asking for it But it bit me before I saw it Sucked my soul, I had no chance Ring the bell for last dance

Lovebugs
