

You cant tell, but were starting this all over
Its me if it wasnt you
Were different but it all spills out the same
What you didnt know is
All this time I never gave it up on making up time for everything I wanna do
Is there anything you want to say?

Chorus:

Why does everything I touch just fall apart?
Its like, every time I really care I lose it all
What you didnt know is
Ive been misleading
mistakes keep repeating
All Ive been living for is falling
Falling yeah

On and on, singing you all the symptoms
I forgot it now
I do create the sparks if come and gone
What you didnt know is
All this time I never gave it up on make it on top of every day I wanna do
Is there anything you want to say?

Why does everything I touch just fall apart?
Its like, every time I really care I lose it all
What you didnt know is
Ive been misleading
mistakes keep repeating
All Ive been living for is falling
Falling yeah

I hit the ground
Running
Im searching for the answer

If only we knew everything about it

Why does everything I touch just fall apart?
Its like, every time I really care I lose it all
What you didnt know is
Ive been misleading
mistakes keep repeating
All Ive been living for is falling
Falling yeah..
