Loverboy

We're headin' for a meltdown
There's gonna be a breakdown
Before we have the countdown
We better have a shakedown

You treat me bad, you leave me cold
You got me guessin', so I've been told
You took our love, threw it away
Now start talkin', before it's too late for the

Meltdown
There's gonna be a breakdown
Before we have the countdown
We better have a shakedown

Love me or leave me, it's all the same
Now either way, it's a cryin' shame
You say you care, it doesn't show
This could be love, but I guess we'll never know

And what can I say
And what should I do
When all along
I was thinkin' of you

Meltdown
Oooh!!
Meltdown
Yeah!!

We're headin' for a meltdown
There's gonna be a breakdown
Before we have the countdown
We better have a shake, shakedown

We're headin' for a meltdown
We're headin' for a meltdown
