

Stranded

Loverboy

It didn't seem right, I couldn't move on
Could never find the words to write this song
I've been so lost, it took so long
There'll never be a way to right this wrong

Fightin' through the changes searchin' for the key
But nothing could be sung as sad as it should be

Stranded, down and out, abandoned with no place to go
You left me stranded, stranded, I can't stand it
Took it all for granted, don't know what you've got
Until you're stranded, stranded, stranded

I couldn't cry, I wouldn't believe
I was drowning in the love, couldn't breathe
Had to reach down deep, but I needed more
I had to hit the bottom and pick myself up off the floor

So I finally made the changes, finally found the key
But nothing could be sung as sad as it should be

Stranded, down and out, abandoned with no place to go
You left me stranded, stranded, I can't stand it
Took it all for granted, don't what you've got
Until you're stranded

And now I'm finally back stronger than before
The only thing that I want more
Is to see your face, see your face
Walking through the door

So I finally made the changes, finally found the key
Maybe it's not sad enough, but you know it's killing me

Stranded, down and out, abandoned with no place to go
You left me stranded, stranded, I can't stand it
Took it all for granted, don't what you've got
Until you're stranded, stranded, stranded

It didn't seem right, I couldn't move on
Could never find the words to write this song
