

Heart Of Stone

Lovex

I left my soul behind
I grew my conscience blind
Loved my self too much to handle the truth

I had to ease my blues
I turned my back on you
And now I feel no pain

I have no fears
But still I feel I'm
Loosing touch with...

Life...for I'm trough, i'm alone
Inside my heart of stone
And it's you, it's you
Inside my heart of stone

I felt so bad for so long
I thought my heart would grow strong
But all my hope was buried with your goodbyes

I had to ease my blues
I turned my back on you
And now I feel no pain

I have no fears
But still I feel I'm
Loosing touch with...

Life...for I'm trough, i'm alone
Inside my heart of stone
And it's you, it's you
Inside my heart of stone

I have no fears
But still i feel i'm
Loosing touch with...

Life...for I'm trough, i'm alone
Inside my heart of stone
And it's you, it's you
Inside my heart of stone
Inside my heart of stone
Inside my heart of stone
