Heart Of Stone

I left my soul behind I grew my conscience blind Loved my self too much to handle the truth

I had to ease my blues I turned my back on you And now I feel no pain

I have no fears But still I feel I'm Loosing touch with...

Life...for I'm trough, i'm alone Inside my heart of stone And it's you, it's you Inside my heart of stone

I felt so bad for so long I thought my heart would grow strong But all my hope was buried with your goodbyes

I had to ease my blues I turned my back on you And now I feel no pain

I have no fears But still I feel I'm Loosing touch with...

Life...for I'm trough, i'm alone Inside my heart of stone And it's you, it's you Inside my heart of stone

I have no fears But still i feel i'm Loosing touch with...

Life...for I'm trough, i'm alone Inside my heart of stone And it's you, it's you Inside my heart of stone Inside my heart of stone Inside my heart of stone
