

What you don't know is how it turns
Everything to anything
Your failure to your sin
What you hope is that you will learn
From the scars on your skin
And the burden you're carrying
Love and lust
Run the night away
Cause slumber
It can't hide the stains
Love and lust
Far beyond this game
Our old lies
And our new lives won't wait
What you don't know is how it burns
The bridge to home sweet home
The times you lean on
What you don't know is how you disturb
The way it was meant to be
Love and lust
Run the night away
Cause slumber
It can't hide the stains
Love and lust
Far beyond this game
Our old lies
And our new lives won't wait
What you don't know is how it burns
Love and lust
Run the night away
Cause slumber
It can't hide the stains
Love and lust
Far beyond this game
Our old lies
And our new lives won't wait
