Wild And Violent

Limping away creeping out My softer side left me unsatisfied

Fraction of will keeps us apart Our identities became compromised

I'm on myself, I'm on my own tonight One warning before I crumble

You get confused your self-esteem Got tangled up in her misery

Obsession has a tendency Of leaving marks on your dignity

I'm on myself, I'm on my own tonight One warning before I crumble Save yourself, I'm on my own again My wild and violent mind for company

Now I don't wanna be I don't wanna loose my sanity I'd rather be alone Away from you Now I don't wanna be A trace of what I used to be I'd rather go alone And leave you here

I'm on myself, I'm on my own tonight One warning before I crumble Save yourself, I'm on my own again My wild and violent mind for company

I'm on myself, I'm on my own tonight One warning before I crumble

I'm on myself, I'm on my own tonight One warning before I crumble Save yourself, I'm on my own again My wild and violent mind for company
