

All That I Need

Low Level Flight

Yesterday's a blur.
Open my mouth, couldn't say a word.
So much I had to say
Through my head are thoughts of better days.

Like a photograph
The moment right before you slipped away
Right through my hands, without a trace.

[Chorus:]
All that I need
Is to feel
That you're here besides me
And all that I know, is please don't go.

I couldn't understand
Why it took so long to realize.
And now I know I can
Be the one to help you see inside.
Just take my hand and close your eyes.

[Chorus:]
All that I need
Is to feel
That you're here besides me
And all that I need is you to see.
That I'm down on my knees,
I'm begging, please don't leave me,
You know you need me.
And all that I know is please don't go.

Drove you away,
But that was yesterday.
Time can heal,
Everything you feel.

[Chorus:]
All that I need
Is to feel
That you're here besides me
And all that I need is you to see.
That I'm down on my knees,
I'm begging, please don't leave me,
You know you need me.
And all that I know is please don't go.
