

Dance (Until You Drop)

Lower Class Brats

[Originally by The Defects]

When you're down in screaming hell a place that I see every night same familiar faces always looking for a fight leery unchanged faces creating anarchy frustration from the other faces launching such insanity dance, dance, dance until you drop
