

Shot Up - Shot Down

Lower Class Brats

Your innocence was sweet it really knocked me off my feet but you found another love now you dance to a dead beat you say he numbs the pain that warm rush through your vein you crack a little smile as you nod out again

You're shot- shot up and shot down

They can't hear you pout they could never help you out and no one understands why you're crying day in and day out feel your veins collapse your face is scarred from smoking crack but you keep it alive by making money on your back
