

Ain't No Friend

Lower Than Atlantis

I've gotta call it a day because you ain't no friend of mine (n o,no,no)
said I'll leave this place, You have your space and time (ohh)
better off anyway but I should of seen the signs
hope you know you ain't know
I hope you know you ain't no friend of mine

You can't pretend that we'll be friends, it's the end (I'm gone)
I'll brush it off, I've learned a lot in love and loss (Move on)
Had fun but now we're done and I'm doing fine (never looking back)
Miss me now that I'm free and you're left behind (Getting back on track)

I'd be the same if I'd realised, I'd be the same as you
I guess that you were the one who got there first this time

I've gotta call it a day because you ain't no friend of mine (n
o,no,no)
said I'll leave this place, You have your space and time (ohh)
better off anyway but I should of seen the signs
hope you know you ain't know
I hope you know you ain't no friend of mine

I should've known I'd be alone, I supposed (always)
No we're apart, don't need a heart, A fresh start (today)

I'd be the same if I'd realised, I'd be the same as you
I guess that you were the one who got there first this time

I'm gonna do what I wanna I'm gonna do it all when I want This blessing , I've learnt my lesson And no one else can have love you've got But the show must go on Even if it is a sold one...

I've gotta call it a day because you ain't no friend of mine (n
o,no,no)
said I'll leave this place, You have your space and time (ohh)
better off anyway but I should of seen the signs
hope you know you ain't know
I hope you know you ain't no friend of mine
