

Dumb

Lower Than Atlantis

Nobody move, don't touch a thing
Looking at clues, I'm investigating
I, I smell a rat
And now it's time to face the facts

This time I caught you red handed
Didn't know where to ground it, You're amanded
This time it's you that I'm accusing
Your excuses are useless

I know, cause I wasn't born last night
I can see through your lies so dry your eyes
Don't have to play dumb
Don't have to play dumb
Cause I wasn't born last night
There's nothing here to hide behind tonight
Don't have to play dumb
Don't have to play dumb

How do you plea? We know you're guilty
No more lies, won't believe 'em

This time it's you that I'm accusing
Your excuses are useless

I know, cause I wasn't born last night
I can see through your lies so dry your eyes
Don't have to play dumb
Don't have to play dumb
Cause I wasn't born last night
There's nothing here to hide behind tonight
Don't have to play dumb
Don't have to play dumb

I know, cause I wasn't born last night
I can see through your lies so dry your eyes
Don't have to play dumb
Don't have to play dumb
Cause I wasn't born last night
There's nothing here to hide behind tonight
Don't have to play dumb
Don't have to play dumb
