

High At Five

Lower Than Atlantis

On the way home,
I'm over thinking thoughts being thought again.
Trending topics are romance, finance and friends.

I'm not scared enough
(I'm not scared enough)
By the world outside.
I'm growing up, it sucks
But that's just life.

Heartbreaks, mistakes I've made,
I'm learning new things every day.

It's too much
When there's not enough
In the glass that appears to be half full
But I can't fill it up.

It's too much (too much)
Not enough
In the glass that appears to be half full
But I can't fill it up.

I'm kind of tired and that's probably the reason why
My brain is thinking me out of my mind.

And I've worried a lot about where I'll be.
Ten years from now I hope I'll be happy.

But right now it's...

Too much
When there's not enough
In the glass that appears to be half full
But I can't fill it up.

Too much (too much)
Not enough
In the glass that appears to be half full
But I can't fill it up.

It's too much
When there's not enough.
In the glass that appears to be half full
But I can't fill it up.

Too much (too much)
Not enough
In the glass that appears to be half full
But I can't fill it up.
