

I Know A Song That Will Get On Your Nerves

Lower Than Atlantis

I really hate you
And I think that you should know
I'm gonna try and imitate you
With every bone from head to toe
The way you made me feel
So embarrassed and miserable
I'm not spiteful or the vicious type
Imitations the way to go

So I'm chewing nylon gloves to piss you off
Scratching fingernails down a chalkboard
Grinding my teeth through my gums and jaw
Cracking every single knock until they're sore

I hope my plan works out and you slowly go insane
With every day that passes
I'm passing on a message 'feel my pain'
Execute attack, getting my own back
You'll rue the day when it's too late

So I'm chewing nylon gloves to piss you off
Scratching fingernails down a chalkboard
Grinding my teeth through my gums and jaw
Cracking every single knock until they're sore

So I'm chewing nylon gloves to piss you off
Scratching fingernails down a chalkboard
Grinding my teeth through my gums and jaw
Cracking every single knock until they're sore
