

I'm Partying

Lower Than Atlantis

Hey, what you up to, probably busy no doubt
I'm bored and I'm missing out, tired of lazing about
It's Friday night and I'm alone in this house
Would love to hang if allowed, make my own way somehow, somehow
Somehow, somehow

When I'm asleep, the world still spins
But I don't want to miss a thing
I can rest when I am dead
Until then, I'm partying

When I'm asleep, the world still spins
But I don't want to miss a thing
I can rest when I am dead
Until then, I'm partying

I've got some mates, but I've not got any friends
Got no spare time to spend, I'll be alone 'till the end
But that won't stop me going out every night
Getting high as a kite, staying up 'till it's light

When I'm asleep, the world still spins
But I don't want to miss a thing
I can rest when I am dead
Until then, I'm partying

I won't come down
Not now
I won't come down
Not now
Not now

When I'm asleep, the world still spins
But I don't want to miss a thing
I can rest when I am dead
Until then, I'm partying

When I'm asleep, the world still spins
But I don't want to miss a thing
I can rest when I am dead
Until then, I'm partying

Until then, I'm partying
Until then, I'm partying
