

I Would

Lower Than Atlantis

I've been feelin' sick
Thinkin' sketchy shit, I
Haven't slept a wink in a week
Can't scratch this itch
Feel like a fool
There's nothing I wouldn't do, cause
Love is crazy, I'm crazy too
I can prove it to you

I would fight a thousand fights
Lose my eye-sight, take a life
I'd kill a man
Just to hold your hand
I would swallow broken glass
Give my right arm, swim with sharks
I'd die alone
Just to walk you home

Know it sounds extreme
I hope that you will believe me
Wish it wasn't true but it is
I'm in too deep
Sit alone and think
All the stupid things that
I would do to be you for a minute

I am a lock, you are the key
Hopin' some day you'll turn 'round me
Cause after all, after all

I would fight a thousand fights
Lose my eye-sight, take a life
I'd kill a man
Just to hold your hand
I would swallow broken glass
Give my right arm, swim with sharks
I'd die alone
Just to walk you home

I've been feelin' sick
Thinkin' sketchy shit
I have slept a wink in a week
And I can't scratch this itch
I've been feelin' sick
Thinkin' sketchy shit
Love is crazy, I'm crazy too
And I can prove it to you

I would fight a thousand fights
Lose my eye-sight, take a life
I'd kill a man
I'd die alone
Just to walk you home

Just to walk you, walk you home
