

If The World Was To End

Lower Than Atlantis

If the world was to end,
would I plummet or ascend
or would I even know it had happened.
I'd like to believe,
destiny has a plan for me,
but my mind won't allow me the idea

Have you ever felt like you're just waiting for your life to start?
Seems the same from day to day and everyday you're losing heart
. I want some motivation. Something has to give.
I need resuscitation because I'm losing the will to live.

If the world was to end,
would I plummet or ascend
or would I even know it had happened.
I'd like to believe,
destiny has a plan for me,
but my mind won't allow me the idea

Have you ever thought that maybe the Truman Show was real?
I'm the leading role of my own show and all my secrets are being revealed.
I need an offswitch on my brain before I go insane

If the world was to end,
would I plummet or ascend
or would I even know it had happened.
I'd like to believe,
destiny has a plan for me,
but my mind won't allow me the idea

If the world was to end,
would I plummet or ascend
or would I even know it had happened.
I'd like to believe,
destiny has a plan for me,
but my mind won't allow me the idea
