

Time Flies

Lower Than Atlantis

What's all this I've been hearing about maturity Go to school, go to work, go to hell, routines bore the crap out of me
We're only alive for a short amount of time, while you're planning your life i'll live mine Don't be scared of what's out there as long as you're doing what makes you happy
Don't you agree with me?

I think back to when I was young, the memories and all that fun
I suppose I'm grown up now, growing up gets me down

People keep telling me I need to face reality Buy a house, find a wife, have some kids, what if that's not for me? Mr. family
We're only alive for a short amount of time While you're planning your life, I'll live mine I'm sure one day I'll find my way but right now I'm content in being young and care free Tell me honestly, are you feeling me?

I think back to the days when Pogs were cool, hanging out in the playground after school
Not a care in the world, never gave a fuck Peter Pan had it right, I never wanna grow up
